New York, NY 10007

This request is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. Given Plaintiff's pro se status, both Parties' deadline to file additional briefing is extended to July 28, 2025, at 10:00 AM. No further extensions will be granted. SO ORDERED.

JENNIFER E. WILLIS
United States Magistrate Judge

In re: Agra v. Dolci et al., 23-cv-10255 (AT) (JW)

Dear Hon. Judge Jennifer E. Willis,

I write to respectfully request an extension to the filing deadline for additional briefing on the Parties dispute whether service of the original and amended complaint was sufficient [Court's Order from July 18, 2025, ECF 90], pursuant to your Individual Practice I(B-C). I state the following:

1. I request a 7-day extension of my July 23, 2025 deadline for my additional briefing on the Parties dispute whether service of the original complaint was sufficient, to July 30, 2025.
2. I have made only one previous request for extension in this action, to file an opposition to Defendants' motions to dismiss, which was granted [ECF No. 73]
3. I am requesting this extension because I am pro se and it is difficult for me to meet this deadline. In addition, I am now working directly with the City Bar Justice Center's Pro Se clinic. I need more time to coordinate with the Clinic.
4. On July 23, 2025, I contacted opposing counsel to request their consent to this extension. I was able to get in contact with opposing counsel. The counsel did not consent to this extension without providing any reason of their decline.

I propose the deadline for July 30, 2025.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

PEDRO AGRA
